Lifeline is committed to raising the awareness of domestic and family violence.

1-Day DV-aware is an interactive workshop where participants can learn how to recognise and respond to domestic and family violence and what they can do to help make a difference.

Why DV-alert?

DV-alert is led by experienced trainers dedicated to reducing violence against women and their children. Our 1-Day DV-aware workshop provides a safe space to learn, connect and be empowered to recognise and respond confidently to those in crisis.

What will I learn?

In attending our 1-Day DV-aware workshop you will:

- know how to identify the different signs and forms of abuse that constitute domestic and family violence
- learn about the Cycle of Violence and the Power and Control Wheel (The Duluth Model)
- reflect on and share what you can do if you know someone who is experiencing domestic and family violence
- have an opportunity to network with other individuals
- receive tools and references for domestic and family violence support and referral.

Who is it for?

- Anyone living in Australia.
- Minimum age: 18-years-old.
- Also suitable for organisations.

Cost

This workshop is free for adults. DV-alert training is funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services.
